PRINCE PASSES THROUGH OTTUMWA
RULER OF MONACO IS PASSENGER ON BURLINGTON TRAIN EN ROUTE TO THE EAST.
Prince Albert of Monaco passed through Ottumwa again Thursday on a private car over the Burlington, en route east. He had been hunting in Wyoming, being the guest of A. A. Anderson, near Cody, in the Big Horn country. When Prince Albert is dressed to appear in public he looks like a substantial, plain, business man. He generally wears a "pepper and salt" suit, with a derby hat, somewhat the worse for dust. But on the occasion of his second passage through this city he was dressed only in a pair of pajamas. The first time he passed en route to his western hunting grounds, he was wrapped only in slumber, being in the midst of his afternoon nap.
On this occasion the prince appeared happy and enthusiastic over the manner in which he had been treated in America. He thinks this is a wonderful country, and a delightful hospitality. One thing bothers him, however. He finds there is a wide impression in this country that he is the prince of Monte Carlo, the noted gambling resort. He denies that this is true and is reported to have stated that Monte Carlo is not a part of his principality, Monaco. However, he did not mean that, because Monte Carlo is an important part of his principality—so important, in fact that the gambling corporation which runs Monte Carlo, pays him personally a handsome yearly sum for the right to conduct the gambling institution. In addition this corporation supports the temporal and spiritual affairs of the principality by paying all costs of both church and state.
But Prince Albert is a good old fellow, and doesn't believe in gambling at all, and thinks it very foolish of anyone to go to Monte Carlo and lose money when there is much else that could be done with it in a better way.
The prince was quite successful in his hunt in Wyoming, having killed an elk and a bear. He has the head of the former to add to his fine collection at home, and is taking the skin and skeleton of the latter to mount as a trophy of his American hunt.
The prince will be the guest in the east of a number of scientific societies where he is to deliver a number of lectures on oceanography, or the art of mapping the beds of the seas. His private yacht is fitted out with a lot of interesting scientific apparatus for the purpose of measuring the depth of water, and judging currents, and the prince is quite an expert on that subject. He recently celebrated his 62nd birthday, but does not look nearly that old.
In visiting friends in Russell, went to Osceola on Monday to visit his uncle, Charles Hoops and family.
The Holiness revival meetings that have been in progress north of Russell, closed on Sunday night.
Orion Brightwell and family moved their household goods to Chicago on Tuesday.

Why Rent a Farm When You Can Do Better?
Stop renting—you don't get ahead that way. The other fellow gets too much of the profit. I can tell you how to get a farm of your own and start it right with very little money. Government land, small cost and payments so easy they won't bother you.
The C. B. & Q. Railroad pays me to help you get a farm without much money, and I want you to write so I can tell you about it. Do it TODAY.
